

Annual Index OF ARTICLES

January through December 1999

AID

Was this sound medical judgment—or outright bias? June 21, p. 128

ALTERNATIVE MEDICINE

How to get up to speed on alternative medicine. Feb. 22, p. 153
Will alternative-medicine referrals get you sued? May 24, p. 38
Your newest competitors: Alternative-medicine networks. May 24, p. 44
Was this doctor "unconventional" enough to lose his license? June 21, p. 50
Doctors are selling the fountain of youth. Aug. 9, p. 94

ASSISTANTS

Get the most from staff and ancillaries. Jan. 11, p. 106
25 ways to drive your staff crazy. Feb. 8, p. 120
How big a staff do you need? March 22, p. 195
See yourself through your staff's eyes. March 22, p. 242
A crisis made our practice a family. May 10, p. 129
Experts be hanged—my staff incentives work! Oct. 11, p. 177

BILLINGS

Going toe-to-toe with Blue Shield—for $110,000. Jan. 25, p. 116
My tragic brush with the barter system. Feb. 22, p. 171
A shopper's guide to practice management software. May 24, p. 177
Get plans to pay in full, on time. June 7, p. 79
How a smart billing clerk saved my neck. Sept. 6, p. 91

My system was embezzlement-proof. Yeah, right. Sept. 6, p. 129
What to do about a slow-pay carrier—when all else fails. Sept. 20, p. 94

CAPITATION

Drug costs could come out of your pocket. April 12, p. 178
How capitation can raise your overhead. April 12, p. 195
Capitation: on the rise. Dec. 6, p. 188

CARS

Get the right car at the right price. Jan. 11, p. 118
BMW raises the bar—again. March 8, p. 146

Get the best deal on car insurance. May 24, p. 79
Can it be—a "practical" Jaguar? June 7, p. 118
Mercedes S-Class: Lots of luxury, lots of great new gadgets. July 12, p. 172
Which cars hold their value—and which don't? Aug. 23, p. 108

The cars you love, the cars you hate. Aug. 23, p. 121
Audi TT and Honda S2000: Nifty antidotes for a midlife crisis. Sept. 20, p. 136
Help your kid pick the right car. Oct. 25, p. 93

COLLEAGUES

My partner's privacy had a price—and I paid it. Feb. 22, p. 231
Who says practice partners can't be friends? Oct. 11, p. 195

COMPENSATION

What could you earn in a group practice now? March 22, p. 103
Doctors' earnings make a stride. Sept. 20, p. 173
Thar's gold (maybe) in those ancillary services. Dec. 6, p. 114

COMPUTERS

Can you do it yourself? Feb. 8, p. 87
Don't let this revolution leave you behind. April 26, p. 40
Electronic medical records make sense—at last. May 24, p. 134
Switching from paper to computerized charts. May 24, p. 157
A shopper's guide to practice management software. May 24, p. 177
Get plans to pay in full, on time. June 7, p. 79
Save time and please patients with e-mail. July 12, p. 155
There's still time to avoid Y2K disaster. Aug. 23, p. 73
Software that makes money management a snap. Nov. 8, p. 184
Why that computer "bargain" may be anything but. Nov. 22, p. 63
Electronic records—I can't live without 'em. Dec. 6, p. 166

Continues

Annual Index OF ARTICLES

January through December 1999

AID

Was this sound medical judgment—or outright bias? June 21, p. 128

ALTERNATIVE MEDICINE

How to get up to speed on alternative medicine. Feb. 22, p. 153
Will alternative-medicine referrals get you sued? May 24, p. 38
Your newest competitors: Alternative-medicine networks. May 24, p. 44
Was this doctor "unconventional" enough to lose his license? June 21, p. 50
Doctors are selling the fountain of youth. Aug. 9, p. 94

ASSISTANTS

Get the most from staff and ancillaries. Jan. 11, p. 106
25 ways to drive your staff crazy. Feb. 8, p. 120
How big a staff do you need? March 22, p. 195
See yourself through your staff's eyes. March 22, p. 242
A crisis made our practice a family. May 10, p. 129
Experts be hanged—my staff incentives work! Oct. 11, p. 177

BILLINGS

Going toe-to-toe with Blue Shield—for $110,000. Jan. 25, p. 116
My tragic brush with the barter system. Feb. 22, p. 171
A shopper's guide to practice management software. May 24, p. 177
Get plans to pay in full, on time. June 7, p. 79
How a smart billing clerk saved my neck. Sept. 6, p. 91

My system was embezzlement-proof. Yeah, right. Sept. 6, p. 129
What to do about a slow-pay carrier—when all else fails. Sept. 20, p. 94

CAPITATION

Drug costs could come out of your pocket. April 12, p. 178
How capitation can raise your overhead. April 12, p. 195
Capitation: on the rise. Dec. 6, p. 188

CARS

Get the right car at the right price. Jan. 11, p. 118
BMW raises the bar—again. March 8, p. 146

Get the best deal on car insurance. May 24, p. 79
Can it be—a "practical" Jaguar? June 7, p. 118
Mercedes S-Class: Lots of luxury, lots of great new gadgets. July 12, p. 172
Which cars hold their value—and which don't? Aug. 23, p. 108

The cars you love, the cars you hate. Aug. 23, p. 121
Audi TT and Honda S2000: Nifty antidotes for a midlife crisis. Sept. 20, p. 136
Help your kid pick the right car. Oct. 25, p. 93

COLLEAGUES

My partner's privacy had a price—and I paid it. Feb. 22, p. 231
Who says practice partners can't be friends? Oct. 11, p. 195

COMPENSATION

What could you earn in a group practice now? March 22, p. 103
Doctors' earnings make a stride. Sept. 20, p. 173
Thar's gold (maybe) in those ancillary services. Dec. 6, p. 114

COMPUTERS

Can you do it yourself? Feb. 8, p. 87
Don't let this revolution leave you behind. April 26, p. 40
Electronic medical records make sense—at last. May 24, p. 134
Switching from paper to computerized charts. May 24, p. 157
A shopper's guide to practice management software. May 24, p. 177
Get plans to pay in full, on time. June 7, p. 79
Save time and please patients with e-mail. July 12, p. 155
There's still time to avoid Y2K disaster. Aug. 23, p. 73
Software that makes money management a snap. Nov. 8, p. 184
Why that computer "bargain" may be anything but. Nov. 22, p. 63
Electronic records—I can't live without 'em. Dec. 6, p. 166

Continues

CORPORATIONS

What an annual report will—and won't—tell you. Jan. 25, p. 124

CPT CODING

They call it claims processing. I call it fraud against doctors. Dec. 20, p. 106

DEATH & DYING

Intimations of mortality. Feb. 8, p. 179

A dying man on Death Row: Testing the Hippocratic oath. Feb. 22, p. 58

Let us bring tidings of comfort to the dying. March 22, p. 175

Sometimes, death means you don't go by the book. April 12, p. 133

A crisis made our practice a family. May 10, p. 129

"Ethical hope"—a lifeline for sick patients. Aug. 9, p. 118

Who really has the last word on a DNR? Oct. 11, p. 116

Domestic violence: A direct hit on our family. Oct. 25, p. 105

DRUGS

Drug costs could come out of your pocket. April 12, p. 178

"Doc, I saw this great new drug on TV..." April 26, p. 71

Don't be suckered by drug seekers. July 12, p. 132

Help your needy patients get free medication. Sept. 20, p. 57

Are bargain-basement medications harming your patients? Nov. 22, p. 161

EDUCATION

Get a head start on your kids' college fund. March 8, p. 112

Behind on college savings? March 22, p. 151

What's a neurologist doing in grade school? June 21, p. 122

Could you compete with an academic medical center? Aug. 23, p. 52

Are new doctors learning to love managed care? Oct. 11, p. 141

Say goodbye to your med school debt. Dec. 6, p. 38

EQUIPMENT

They sued, but I had the fax on my side. June 7, p. 165

ESTATE PLANNING

Can you spot a phony trust? Don't be too sure. Jan. 11, p. 137

Lessons I wish I'd learned before Dad got old. April 12, p. 126

Protect your assets—set up a trust. April 26, p. 80

ETHICS

A dying man on Death Row: Testing the Hippocratic oath. Feb. 22, p. 58

Would a cost-conscious physician order this MRI? Aug. 9, p. 62

Who really has the last word on a DNR? Oct. 11, p. 116

Warning! Bioethics can be hazardous to health. Oct. 25, p. 113

A colleague may be losing it—but he asks you not to tell. Dec. 6, p. 100

EXPENSES

Why I pay all the bills for our practice. Jan. 25, p. 55

How capitation can raise your overhead. April 12, p. 195

How practice costs wash away income. Oct. 25, p. 60

FAMILY

Money moves to make when you're expecting a child. Feb. 8, p. 164

Teaching your kids about money. Feb. 22, p. 102

In business, my MD didn't count. Feb. 22, p. 225

When elderly parents can't manage alone. March 8, p. 86

The baby was in the NICU. I couldn't be just "the aunt." March 8, p. 149

Would I have to deliver our baby in a taxi? May 24, p. 111

This happens to my patients—not to my brother. Oct. 25, p. 72

Help your kid pick the right car. Oct. 25, p. 93

Domestic violence: A direct hit on our family. Oct. 25, p. 105

You can't be the right doctor for your family. Dec. 6, p. 97

FEES

Charges vs reimbursements: The gap widens again. Oct. 11, p. 180

FOREIGN HEALTH CARE

Hospitalists are a lousy idea. Jan. 25, p. 63

FRAUD & ABUSE

I was sued for Medicare fraud—over an innocent error. March 22, p. 70

Don't let billing mistakes make you a target. June 21, p. 142

What to do—now—to protect yourself. June 21, p. 161

"It's a physician's duty to expose fraud if he suspects it." Sept. 20, p. 154

GROUP PRACTICE

Get the most from staff and ancillaries. Jan. 11, p. 106

If your group collapsed, where would you go? Jan. 25, p. 157

Here's a switch: A group that's happy with its PPM deal. Feb. 22, p. 118

My partner's privacy had a price—and I paid it. Feb. 22, p. 231

Recruiting doctors who'll stay. March 8, p. 160

We're a group, but we feel like soloists. March 8, p. 216

What could you earn in a group practice now? March 22, p. 103

Continues

Ever feel like Dilbert in a white coat? April 12, p. 77
 Name that practice! April 12, p. 163
 Your report card is about to go public. April 12, p. 220
 Keeping satellite-office doctors in the loop. April 26, p. 119
 Specialty carveouts: How big a threat to primary care? April 26, p. 143
 Our senior partner isn't retired. He's "rehired." June 7, p. 204
 Why you need real business pros on your board. June 21, p. 77
 It cost $5,000 to get into this group—and a fortune to get out. July 12, p. 106
 Say no to health plans? These doctors did. Aug. 9, p. 178
 Who's on the malpractice hook if your office is mismanaged? Sept. 6, p. 68
 After playing with fire, this group went down in flames. Sept. 6, p. 99
 These clinics make patient education a class act. Oct. 11, p. 158
 Advice for dealing with on-the-job problems. Oct. 25, p. 86
 We trusted. We hired. We got burned. Oct. 25, p. 135
 Should your CEO be an outsider or hired from within? Nov. 22, p. 88
 Thar's gold (maybe) in those ancillary services. Dec. 6, p. 114

HEALTH INSURANCE

Will Congress stop playing politics with health care? Jan. 11, p. 83

Going toe-to-toe with Blue Shield—for $110,000. Jan. 25, p. 116
 Warning from Dallas: Doctors, grab your slingshots! Feb. 8, p. 29
 Stay up to date on patients' health benefits. April 26, p. 93
 Get insurance authorizations faster. May 10, p. 122
 Would a cost-conscious physician order this MRI? Aug. 9, p. 62
 Aetna US Healthcare: Godzilla or Barney? Aug. 9, p. 79
 How a smart billing clerk saved my neck. Sept. 6, p. 91
 What to do about a slow-pay carrier—when all else fails. Sept. 20, p. 94
 Caring for the uninsured: Will the problem ever be solved? Dec. 20, p. 132
 Caring for the uninsured: How America's doctors are making a difference. Dec. 20, p. 118
 They call it claims processing. I call it fraud against doctors. Dec. 20, p. 106
 Mandated continuity of care: A solution in search of a problem? Dec. 20, p. 45

HOSPITALS

Hospitalists are a lousy idea. Jan. 25, p. 63
 The week I became a doctor. March 22, p. 119
 Death in the OR: Trial by tabloid. March 22, p. 212
 How to reclaim the practice you sold. July 12, p. 83
 Could you compete with an academic medical center? Aug. 23, p. 52
 Why tomorrow's FP won't look like today's. Sept. 6, p. 187
 Our reader poll: The jury's still out on hospitalists. Sept. 20, p. 115
 Hospitalists: They've made me a believer. Sept. 20, p. 120
 I finally understand the waiting room ordeal. Nov. 22, p. 74
 Fined $100,000—for "dumping" patients he couldn't treat. Nov. 22, p. 106
 Can doctors ever make a profit owning a hospital? Dec. 6, p. 84

HUMOR

25 ways to drive your staff crazy. Feb. 8, p. 120
 Name that practice! April 12, p. 163
 Need a chuckle? Check out these codes. April 12, p. 265
 Who says there's nothing funny about internship! May 10, p. 103
 Windsurfing: Looks like heaven, hurts like hell. Aug. 9, p. 139

INSURANCE

The liability insurance you didn't know you needed. Jan. 25, p. 101
 When umbrella coverage won't keep you dry. April 12, p. 136
 Get the best deal on car insurance. May 24, p. 79
 Trim the cost of home insurance. June 7, p. 129
 Brace yourself for a surge in premiums. July 26, p. 103
 How's your insurance coverage? July 26, p. 115
 Malpractice premium discounts: They don't come easy now. Aug. 23, p. 63
 Cheap life insurance? Time's running out. Nov. 22, p. 49

INTEGRATED DELIVERY SYSTEMS

How FPA's implosion buried its doctors. Jan. 25, p. 140
 What practices are worth in today's market. Jan. 25, p. 169
 A practice sold, a practice ruined. July 12, p. 64
 Saying goodbye to the practice I loved. July 12, p. 215

INTERNET

The best Web sites for doctors. May 10, p. 81
 Save time and please patients with e-mail. July 12, p. 155
 A cheaper and easier way to trade stocks. Nov. 8, p. 191
 The Web's best financial sites. Nov. 8, p. 198
 Does shopping online live up to the hype? Nov. 8, p. 208

Continues

INVESTMENTS

Your investments: Where to find the bargains. Jan. 11, p. 71
What an annual report will—and won't—tell you. Jan. 25, p. 124
Our model portfolios: So far, so good (mostly). Feb. 8, p. 128
Where financial pros put their own money. May 10, p. 29
Could you dig a financial hole this deep? May 24, p. 52
How—and how much—to pay a financial planner. Nov. 8, p. 59
Avoid these common blunders. Nov. 8, p. 86
Keep cash rolling in after you retire. Nov. 8, p. 121
Bet your bucks on the euro? Nov. 8, p. 143

INVESTMENTS—BONDS

Your investments: Where to find the bargains. Jan. 11, p. 71
A play-it-safe plan for nervous investors. June 7, p. 72
Wake up that sleepy bond portfolio. Nov. 8, p. 115
Get top returns on short-term investments. Nov. 8, p. 128

INVESTMENTS—MUTUAL FUNDS

Your investments: Where to find the bargains. Jan. 11, p. 71
Our model portfolios: So far, so good (mostly). Feb. 8, p. 128
Mutual funds: Tax efficiency is nice—but not the bottom line. March 22, p. 166
From financial novice to mutual fund manager—one doctor's transformation. April 12, p. 271
Our model portfolios: This time, it paid to take risks. May 10, p. 112
A play-it-safe plan for nervous investors. June 7, p. 72
Are biotech stocks finally ready to soar? June 21, p. 102
Could these "sleeper" funds wake up your portfolio? July 12, p. 141
Could you hit the jackpot with IPOs? July 26, p. 37
An all-stock strategy pays off big. Aug. 9, p. 100

The stocks-only choices are ahead—way ahead. Oct. 25, p. 128
Give your portfolio regular check-ups. Nov. 8, p. 85
Today's best stock funds. Nov. 8, p. 101
Get top returns on short-term investments. Nov. 8, p. 128
Last year's picks: Hot . . . and not. Nov. 8, p. 175

INVESTMENTS—STOCKS

Our model portfolios: So far, so good (mostly). Feb. 8, p. 128
Remember when . . . wow—the Dow hit 1,000! March 8, p. 187
Do you dare to get rich this quickly? March 22, p. 85
Our model portfolios: This time, it paid to take risks. May 10, p. 112
A play-it-safe plan for nervous investors. June 7, p. 72
Are biotech stocks finally ready to soar? June 21, p. 102
Could you hit the jackpot with IPOs? July 26, p. 37
An all-stock strategy pays off big. Aug. 9, p. 100
The stocks-only choices are ahead—way ahead. Oct. 25, p. 128
Give your portfolio regular check-ups. Nov. 8, p. 85
Bet your bucks on the euro? Nov. 8, p. 143
Three pros pick their favorite stocks. Nov. 8, p. 163
Last year's picks: Hot . . . and not. Nov. 8, p. 175
A cheaper and easier way to trade stocks. Nov. 8, p. 191
Inside the Dow. Dec. 20, p. 75

LAW

A court muddies the water for HMO liability. Jan. 11, p. 41
The liability insurance you didn't know you needed. Jan. 25, p. 101
Sexual harassment: Prevention is the best defense. April 12, p. 252
Small claim, big malpractice headache. April 26, p. 116
Will violence end patients' access to abortion? May 10, p. 51
Medical boards: Facing a disciplinary dilemma. May 10, p. 138

Compassionate care—or murder? June 7, p. 50
Why more doctors aren't testing for HIV. June 7, p. 180
Take it from a lawyer: Contingency fees discourage lawsuits. Aug. 9, p. 167
A malpractice triangle: My patient, my colleagues—and me. Aug. 23, p. 97
"It's a physician's duty to expose fraud if he suspects it." Sept. 20, p. 154
You're an employed doctor? You've got rights! Oct. 11, p. 75
Fined $100,000—for "dumping" patients he couldn't treat. Nov. 22, p. 106

LEGISLATION

Tort reform battles: Sometimes the force is with you. July 26, p. 132
Collective bargaining for doctors: The Texas law: On target, or firing blanks? Aug. 23, p. 36
Collective bargaining for doctors: Don't count on a green light from Washington. Aug. 23, p. 45
Congress and health care: Lights . . . camera . . . inaction. Sept. 6, p. 47
Mandated continuity of care: A solution in search of a problem? Dec. 20, p. 45

LOCATION & DISTRIBUTION

Primary care feels the job squeeze. July 12, p. 194

MALPRACTICE

How do expert witnesses get away with lying? Jan. 11, p. 152
10 lessons you can learn from my malpractice suit. Jan. 25, p. 75
Did a pretrial drama help our malpractice defense? Feb. 8, p. 172
The jury cleared me—and I had to know why. Feb. 22, p. 139
Will your HMO pull you into a malpractice suit? March 8, p. 202
Death in the OR: Trial by tabloid. March 22, p. 212

Maybe doctors can't beat HMOs at their own game. Sept. 6, p. 122
 What to do about a slow-pay carrier—when all else fails. Sept. 20, p. 94
 What the Medicare HMO pullout means for you. Sept. 20, p. 129
 Are new doctors learning to love managed care? Oct. 11, p. 141
 The HMO graveyard: What caused the biggest failure yet? Oct. 25, p. 170
 Why was this doctor allowed to start a health plan? Oct. 25, p. 184
 How does your productivity measure up? Nov. 22, p. 54
 Invitation to a lawsuit: Financial incentives to limit care. Nov. 22, p. 144

Capitation: on the rise. Dec. 6, p. 188
 Mandated continuity of care: A solution in search of a problem? Dec. 20, p. 45
 Goodbye or good riddance? What you'll miss most—and least—about the 20th century. Dec. 20, p. 80

MARKETING

What's in a name? For DOs, plenty. Dec. 6, p. 76

MEDICAL ECONOMICS

INTERVIEW

Aetna US Healthcare: Godzilla or Barney? Aug. 9, p. 79

MEDICAL ECONOMICS

SURVEYS

Midlevel providers: Making their mark in doctors' offices.

Feb. 8, p. 141
 Our national survey confirms: Even the best doctors are targets. July 26, p. 52
 Who's been sued—and who won. July 26, p. 58
 Once burned, twice defensive. July 26, p. 82
 How's your insurance coverage? July 26, p. 115
 Does managed care increase malpractice risk? July 26, p. 128
 One guess who doctors blame—and what remedies they favor. July 26, p. 144
 Doctors' earnings make a stride. Sept. 20, p. 173
 Charges vs reimbursements: The gap widens again. Oct. 11, p. 180
 How practice costs wash away income. Oct. 25, p. 60
 How does your productivity measure up? Nov. 22, p. 54
 Capitation: On the rise. Dec. 6, p. 188

MEDICAL PROFESSION

Your practice: Time to make big changes? Jan. 11, p. 42
 Will Congress stop playing politics with health care? Jan. 11, p. 83
 Doctors who go the extra mile: Skillful hands, a generous heart. Jan. 11, p. 147
 Bad news—they've discovered a cure for cancer. Jan. 11, p. 150
 Doctors who go the extra mile: Giving kids a head start on health. Feb. 8, p. 123
 Half empty or half full? How doctors are recapturing the joy of medicine. Feb. 22, p. 198
 Four happy doctors: What's their secret? Feb. 22, p. 218
 Doctors who go the extra mile: Caring for the spirit, healing the body. March 8, p. 185
 The week I became a doctor. March 22, p. 119
 Doctors who go the extra mile: Helping ex-gang members erase the past. April 12, p. 151
 Why was that doctor naked in his office? April 12, p. 263
 We need a new ICD-9: Disease and death by tobacco. April 26, p. 159
 Should George Lundberg have been fired? May 10, p. 40
 Doctors who go the extra mile: Repaying his town for a kindness long ago. May 10, p. 107
 Medical boards: Facing a disciplinary dilemma. May 10, p. 138
 Impaired physicians: Giving rehab programs a new look. May 10, p. 173
 We could treat the world with what we waste at home. May 24, p. 193
 Doctors who go the extra mile: She strengthens people's health—and their faith. June 7, p. 107
 Alas, I've developed a bedside manner. June 7, p. 199
 Was this doctor "unconventional" enough to lose his license? June 21, p. 50
 What's a neurologist doing in grade school? June 21, p. 122
 Great advice for young doctors—from colleagues who learned the hard way. June 21, p. 171
 Doctors who go the extra mile: "Once-a-year Santa Clausing wasn't enough." July 12, p. 183
 Remember when... malpractice premiums were $150 a year? Aug. 9, p. 46
 Doctors who go the extra mile: Environmentally speaking... and doing. Aug. 9, p. 91
 If we can't embrace change, let's learn to accept it. Aug. 23, p. 145
 When I'm old, give me a real doctor. Sept. 6, p. 117
 Doctors who go the extra mile: He's not just clowning around. Sept. 6, p. 155
 My hardest lesson: I'm just a doctor. Sept. 20, p. 74
 Doctors who go the extra mile: "If you can help people in any way, you should do it." Oct. 11, p. 171
 Warning! Bioethics can be hazardous to health. Oct. 25, p. 113
 Good medicine has gone to the dogs. Nov. 8, p. 281

Continues

You can't be the right doctor for your family. Dec. 6, p. 97
 A colleague may be losing it—but he asks you not to tell. Dec. 6, p. 100
 Doctors who go the extra mile: From high school dropout to teacher of youth. Dec. 6, p. 137
 The people who shaped our world. Dec. 6, p. 151
 Freshen your practice—make house calls. Dec. 6, p. 173
 Here's to the giants of medicine. Dec. 20, p. 64
 Goodbye or good riddance? What you'll miss most—and least—about the 20th century. Dec. 20, p. 80
 Caring for the uninsured: How America's doctors are making a difference. Dec. 20, p. 118

MEDICARE/MEDICAID

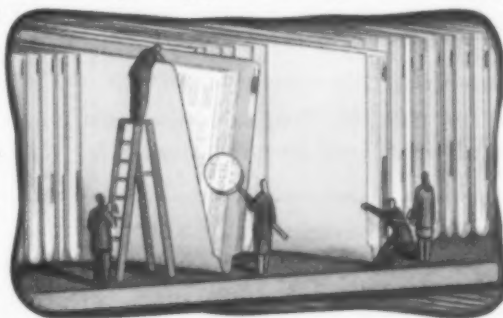

Will Congress stop playing politics with health care? Jan. 11, p. 83
 I was sued for Medicare fraud—over an innocent error. March 22, p. 70
 Don't let billing mistakes make you a target. June 21, p. 142
 Will your patients turn into bounty hunters? June 21, p. 153
 What to do—now—to protect yourself. June 21, p. 161
 See Medicaid patients without going broke. Aug. 23, p. 88
 Dear Patient: I didn't commit Medicare fraud. Here's why... Aug. 23, p. 135
 Congress and health care: Lights... camera... inaction. Sept. 6, p. 47
 Maybe doctors can't beat HMOs at their own game. Sept. 6, p. 122
 What the Medicare HMO pullout means for you. Sept. 20, p. 129
 "It's a physician's duty to expose fraud if he suspects it." Sept. 20, p. 154
 It's illegal to be nice to patients. Oct. 11, p. 167
 When Medicare says, "Let's see your records." Oct. 25, p. 152

OFFICE

Keeping satellite-office doctors in the loop. April 26, p. 119

ORGANIZED MEDICINE

How do expert witnesses get away with lying? Jan. 11, p. 152
 Impaired physicians: Giving rehab programs a new look. May 10, p. 173

 Collective bargaining for doctors: The Texas law: On target, or firing blanks? Aug. 23, p. 36

PATIENTS

Your practice: Time to make big changes? Jan. 11, p. 42
 10 lessons you can learn from my malpractice suit. Jan. 25, p. 75
 The family kept hoping for a miracle. Jan. 25, p. 179
 Do yourself a favor—take care of nursing home patients. Feb. 8, p. 110
 Patients you learn from—and never forget. Feb. 22, p. 123
 "Don't touch my legs!" Feb. 22, p. 163
 My tragic brush with the barter system. Feb. 22, p. 171
 A dying man on Death Row: Testing the Hippocratic oath. Feb. 22, p. 58
 Let us bring tidings of comfort to the dying. March 22, p. 175
 "You've only thought of yourself and the almighty dollar." March 22, p. 221
 Throw a party for your patients. March 22, p. 260
 Sometimes, death means you don't go by the book. April 12, p. 133
 Office morale rises—and falls—with you. April 12, p. 157

My most grateful patient was the one I couldn't help. April 12, p. 246
 The ring that changed my patient's life. April 12, p. 251
 We need to get better at "customer service." April 12, p. 275
 "Doc, I saw this great new drug on TV..." April 26, p. 71
 Will violence end patients' access to abortion? May 10, p. 51
 Don't send a patient running to a lawyer. May 10, p. 202
 Three specialists couldn't help her—but the patient sued me. May 24, p. 65
 "We can only do small things with great love." May 24, p. 98
 How to spot the patient who's faking it. May 24, p. 105
 Maybe we doctors just talk too much. May 24, p. 122
 The best part of practice is the friendship of patients. May 24, p. 198
 We can manage care—but not "Marvin." June 7, p. 145
 Never shrug off a rumor—especially one about you. June 7, p. 149
 How to help the traumatized patient. June 7, p. 156
 Why more doctors aren't testing for HIV. June 7, p. 180
 Alas, I've developed a bedside manner. June 7, p. 199
 I should have left this patient alone. June 7, p. 209
 Will your patients turn into bounty hunters? June 21, p. 153
 Don't be suckered by drug seekers. July 12, p. 132
 My last patient before I turned 40. July 12, p. 150
 Save time and please patients with e-mail. July 12, p. 155
 Sure cure for a lousy day: A patient's thanks. July 12, p. 169
 Three people who made me listen. July 12, p. 206
 "Ethical hope"—a lifeline for sick patients. Aug. 9, p. 118
 I was my patient's (very) best cus-

fund manager—one doctor's transformation. April 12, p. 271
 My students' big test: Saving my life. April 26, p. 188
 Swissair 111: Sometimes, just being there is therapy. April 26, p. 203
 I'm a physician, and I'm a drug addict... May 10, p. 186
 I'm not a "hummingbird" anymore. May 10, p. 229
 What I found when I lost my voice. May 24, p. 68
 Would I have to deliver our baby

in a taxi? May 24, p. 111
 "I can't accept doctors' excuses for not being with their kids." July 12, p. 94
 Saying goodbye to the practice I love. July 12, p. 215
 Windsurfing: Looks like heaven, hurts like hell. Aug. 9, p. 139
 Lost, alone—and injured—on the mountain. Sept. 6, p. 197
 "I have to kill you," my patient said. Oct. 11, p. 63
 Nursing home practice: A new cycle in my career. Oct. 11, p. 96
 When I stopped yelling, everybody started listening. Oct. 11, p. 131
 How could a doctor not stop for this car crash? Oct. 25, p. 123
 Doctoring "Down Under." Nov. 22, p. 124
 Anatomy of a killer's hand. Dec. 6, p. 67

A home gym you'll actually use. Dec. 20, p. 93
 Doctor-doctor marriages: What makes them work? Dec. 20, p. 54

PRACTICE MANAGEMENT

Your practice: Time to make big changes? Jan. 11, p. 42
 Why I pay all the bills for our practice. Jan. 25, p. 55
 Always running behind? Try these time-management tips. Feb. 22, p. 83
 Cut your losses by verifying patients' coverage. March 8, p. 54

A new embezzlement twist: Charge it! March 8, p. 76
 We're a group, but we feel like soloists. March 8, p. 216
 We solved our phone problem without spending a dime. March 22, p. 169
 How big a staff do you need? March 22, p. 195
 Office morale rises—and falls—with you. April 12, p. 157
 Sexual harassment: Prevention is the best defense. April 12, p. 252
 We need to get better at "customer service."

April 12, p. 275
 I'm not a "hummingbird" anymore. May 10, p. 229
 There's still time to avoid Y2K disaster. Aug. 23, p. 73
 My system was embezzlement-proof. Yeah, right. Sept. 6, p. 129
 Nursing home practice: A new cycle in my career. Oct. 11, p. 96
 Instant patient records—and all you have to do is talk. Oct. 11, p. 101
 When I stopped yelling, everybody started listening. Oct. 11, p. 131
 Advice for dealing with on-the-job problems. Oct. 25, p. 86
 We trusted. We hired. We got burned. Oct. 25, p. 135
 How your colleagues ease the hassle of nursing home care. Nov. 22, p. 81
 Freshen your practice—make house calls. Dec. 6, p. 173

PRACTICE, SPECIAL TYPES

Collect premium fees for premium care? Jan. 11, p. 127
 What kind of patient would rather see a nurse practitioner? Feb. 8, p. 156
 Doctors are selling the fountain of youth. Aug. 9, p. 94

PRIMARY CARE

Here's a switch: A group that's happy with its PPM deal. Feb. 22, p. 118
 Internists: In search of their true identity. March 22, p. 228
 Could you be blamed for a patient's suicide? April 26, p. 175
 Primary care feels the job squeeze. July 12, p. 194
 Why tomorrow's FP won't look like today's. Sept. 6, p. 187
 General practice gets a second wind. Sept. 20, p. 48
 Our reader poll: The jury's still out on hospitalists. Sept. 20, p. 115
 Hospitalists: They've made me a believer. Sept. 20, p. 120

PROFESSIONS, OTHER

Midlevel providers: Making their mark in doctors' offices. Feb. 8, p. 141
 What kind of patient would rather see a nurse practitioner? Feb. 8, p. 156
 Death in the OR: Trial by tabloid. March 22, p. 212
 Why was that doctor naked in his office? April 12, p. 263
 Why you need real business pros on your board. June 21, p. 77
 What's a neurologist doing in grade school? June 21, p. 122
 The sneaky games lawyers play. July 26, p. 71
 Why everyone loves to hate lawyers. Aug. 9, p. 107
 Good medicine has gone to the dogs. Nov. 8, p. 281

RECORDS

Prepare to meet your preparer. Feb. 8, p. 79
 Don't let this revolution leave you behind. April 26, p. 40

Electronic medical records make sense—at last. May 24, p. 134
Switching from paper to computerized charts. May 24, p. 157
They sued, but I had the fax on my side. June 7, p. 165
Sloppy records—the kiss of death for a malpractice defense. June 7, p. 166
Instant patient records—and all you have to do is talk. Oct. 11, p. 101
Electronic records—I can't live without 'em. Dec. 6, p. 166

RETIREMENT

Fix the flaws in your retirement plan—before it's too late. Jan. 25, p. 41
Gliding smoothly into retirement. Jan. 25, p. 81
For this audit, you need a specialist's help. Feb. 22, p. 73
My support group is really in tune. Feb. 22, p. 175
Ride route 401(k) to a comfortable retirement. April 12, p. 97
One doctor's financial makeover: Plenty of money, not enough patience. April 26, p. 58
Our senior partner isn't retired. He's "rehired." June 7, p. 204
Retire rich? Here's how two doctors did it. June 21, p. 68
First, know exactly what you're worth. Nov. 8, p. 44

Keep cash rolling in after you retire. Nov. 8, p. 121
Financial makeover: Building a nest egg when money is tight. Nov. 8, p. 252

SALARIED PRACTICE

You're an employed doctor? You've got rights! Oct. 11, p. 75

SALES & MERGERS

What practices are worth in today's market. Jan. 25, p. 169

SPECIALTY PRACTICE

Internists: In search of their true identity. March 22, p. 228
Specialty carveouts: How big a threat to primary care? April 26, p. 143
Could you be blamed for a patient's suicide? April 26, p. 175
We could treat the world with what we waste at home. May 24, p. 193
Was this sound medical judgment—or outright bias? June 21, p. 128
A practice sold, a practice ruined. July 12, p. 64
Primary care feels the job squeeze. July 12, p. 194
Doctors are selling the fountain of youth. Aug. 9, p. 94
Why tomorrow's FP won't look like today's. Sept. 6, p. 187

How a child's shattered life changed my career. Sept. 20, p. 65

TAXES

Answers to your tax questions. Jan. 11, p. 101; Jan. 25, p. 71; Feb. 8, p. 103; Feb. 22, p. 169; March 8, p. 181; March 22, p. 187.
Can you spot a phony trust? Don't be too sure. Jan. 11, p. 137
Fix the flaws in your retirement plan—before it's too late. Jan. 25, p. 41
How to whip your return into shape. Feb. 8, p. 46
Prepare to meet your preparer. Feb. 8, p. 79
Can you do it yourself? Feb. 8, p. 87
When to file an amended return—and when not to. Feb. 8, p. 99
Making sideline-business deductions stick. March 8, p. 188
Mutual funds: Tax efficiency is nice—but not the bottom line. March 22, p. 166
Your mother knows best. Sometimes, so does your CPA. April 12, p. 65
Last-minute tactics to trim your '99 bill. Nov. 8, p. 226
Play by the rules—for all they're worth. Nov. 8, p. 238

TRAVEL

Is this Yellowstone—or an RV parking lot? Feb. 22, p. 93
A road trip through the magnificent West. March 22, p. 126
Shangri-la still awaits you. June 7, p. 94
A makeshift catheter in the wild blue yonder. June 7, p. 141
Tropical vacation? Try the polar opposite. Sept. 6, p. 166
Doctoring "Down Under." Nov. 22, p. 124

UNIONS

Collective bargaining for doctors: The Texas law: On target, or firing blanks? Aug. 23, p. 36
Collective bargaining for doctors: Don't count on a green light from Washington. Aug. 23, p. 45 ■

Photo courtesy of Robert Holmes